Government Is Focussed To Spend On Infrastructure In A Big Way

Commerce Minister

New Delhi, India, 23.09.2016, 10:15 Time

USPA NEWS - The Minister of State for Commerce & Industry (Independent Charge), Mrs. Nirmala Sitharaman addressing the inaugural session of the Invest North Summit, in New Delhi on September 22, 2016. The Secretary, DIPP, Mr. Ramesh Abhishek is also seen.

Interaction Between Industry And Government Is Essential

Commerce and Industry Minister Mrs. Nirmala Sitharaman has said that the Government is focused to spend on infrastructure in a big way to create smooth logistics experience for industries.

Addressing the inaugural session of the Invest North Summit on Sep 22, she said the interaction between industry and government is essential. She said that regulatory quality will improve but not the frequency and intensity.

The Minister said that on ease of doing business nearly 12 states have satisfied 75 percent of the conditions which is a welcome step where states are responding positively.

The two day summit will focus on investment climate in Northern States of India.
